Nuvo giving away 15 Ritmo Pregnancy Sound Systems

by Ally - on April 30th, 2010

There is no end to products that could be added to the expectant mother wishlist. It seems like the more new technology that's released the longer and more impossible that list gets. Thankfully Nuvo is helping you take off a decent chunk for those highly interested in the Ritmo, which would save you $129. When you're trying to get supplies for a new baby, that's a huge help. If you're not expecting but know someone that is, you might want to give them a heads up on this one.

Nuvo will start this in May and will end it in September, they'll give away one of these per month. If you're unfamiliar with the Ritmo, it allows for you to not only play music for your baby, but also recordings. That means if a family member records themselves reading a story, you can play it for your baby and create a stronger bond. Plus you could use it even during the most sweaty of activities (like working out), since it's completely machine washable. Just follow this link to find out more, although keep in mind that link won't go active until May 1st. If you're reading this before then, just bookmark it and check back later.
